

Run The Race

By Brian Blackburn

Running in the race of life with Jesus by my side
Has brought many opportunities to live for Him who died
From sacrificing prideful thoughts, to letting go of things
To realize this life I live, is hidden in his wings
But now I know, the grace that He has shown me
Is all I need to be faithful to His call

Chorus:

So I will run the race, you've set before me
Pick up the pace as time moves on
Fixing my eyes upon the one who's gone before me
I will run until I cross the finish line

Sometimes there are weary days, when struggles cloud my eyes
There are questions of which way to choose, the narrow path or mine
Onward to the mark that's traced from the blood of those before
This heritage of faithfulness, resounds the battle's call
And now I know, this wisdom that you've given
Is all I need to be faithful to the call

(Repeat Chorus)

Bridge:

Just to see, the One who says He loves me
Just to hear, "my son, a job well done"

So throwing off the weights of sin, and picking up my cross
Remembering the price He paid considering the cost
And now I know, the blood that He shed for me
Is all I need to be faithful to His call

I will be faithful
(Repeat Chorus)
